The Perfect Summer Day

Ben loves summer. Every Saturday, he goes to the beach with his family. He wakes up early at 7:00 AM because he wants to swim in the sea before it gets too hot.

His mother packs a big basket with delicious sandwiches, cold water, and sweet watermelons.

His father brings a large blue umbrella to protect them from the sun.

Ben enjoys building sandcastles with his younger sister, Maya.

In the afternoon, they always buy chocolate ice cream from a small shop near the beach.

Ben thinks summer is the best season of the year.

A Visit to the Zoo

Last week, Sarah and her classmates went on a school trip to the zoo.

The weather was warm and sunny.

First, they visited the monkeys. The monkeys were very funny because they were jumping between the trees and eating yellow bananas.

Next, Sarah saw the giraffes. They were very tall, and they used their long tongues to eat leaves from the top of the trees.

Sarah's favorite animals were the penguins. She watched them walk slowly on the ice and dive into the cold water.

Sarah took many beautiful pictures with her camera to show her parents.

Learning to Ride a Bike

Tom got a new green bicycle for his eleventh birthday.

He was very excited, but he did not know how to ride it without help.

On Sunday evening, his older brother, Dan, took him to the park.

The park had a long path with no cars.

At first, Tom was afraid of falling, so Dan held the back of the bicycle.

Tom started to pedal slowly. After thirty minutes, Dan let go of the bicycle. Tom rode alone for five meters before he stopped. He was very proud of himself. Tom practiced every day during the week, and now he can ride fast and safely.
